Dear Professor Smith,

On behalf of every student in our school, I'm writing to express our thanks to you for the lecture about the taste of English humour you gave us last week.

Your lecture left a deep impression on us. Through it, we learned a lot about English humour. For example, you talked about the performances of Charlie Chaplin and Mr. Bean, which most of us didn't know well before. We believe the knowledge will be very helpful when we communicate with people from English-speaking countries. We hope you can give us more lectures about foreign cultures in the future.

Thanks again for your wonderful lecture.

Yours,

Li Hua
