Once there was a piano player in a bar(酒吧). People came just to hear him play. But one night, a lady asked him to sing a song.

"I don't sing," said the man.

But the lady told the waiter, "I'm tired of listening to the piano. I want the player to sing!

The waiter shouted across the room, "Hey, friend! If you want to get paid, sing a song!'

So he did. He had never sung in public before. Now he was singing for the very first time! Nobody had ever heard the song Mona Lisa sung so beautifully!

He had talent(天赋) he was sitting on! He may have lived the rest of his life as a no-name piano player in a no-name bar. But once he found, by accident, that he could sing well, he went on working hard and became one of the best-known singers in the US. His name was Nat King Cole.

You, too, have skills and abilities. You may not feel that your talent is great, but it may be better than you think. With hard work, most skills can be improved. Besides, you may have no success at all if you just sit on your talent.

61. The lady asked the player to sing a song because _____.

- A. she had paid him for this
- B. she knew him very well
- C. she wanted to have a change
- D. she enjoyed his singing

62. Nat King Cole succeeded because _____.

- A. the lady helped him a lot
- B. he caught the chance
- C. he continued to play in the bar
- D. he stopped playing the piano

63. The words "sit on" in the passage probably mean"

- A. fail to realize
- B. forget to use
- C. try to develop
- D. manage to show

64. From the story we know if you have some talent, you should _____.

- A. hide it and wait
- B. ask others for help
- C. pay no attention to it
- D. work hard to improve yourself

65. Which could be the best title (标题) for the passage?

- A. Sing in the Bar
- B. Achieve Success in Life
- C. Never Lose Heart
- D. Find Your Hidden Talent

Beethoven, a famous musician in the world, was born in Germany in 1770. In his childhood Beethoven didn't have a happy life. His father was a singer. When he was only four, his father began to make him practice hour after hour on different musical instruments. If he did not put his heart into it, his father would beat him or make it hard on him.

Beethoven loved music an he learned so fast that he was able to go around to give concerts, when he was only a boy of eleven. At the age of seventeen, he won high praise from Mozart, the great musician at that time.

Beethoven was often poor and ill during his life. After one illness, he suddenly found himself deaf. At that time he was only thirty-one. It was a blow (打击) to him indeed.

But he still went on working and writing music pieces. To people's surprise, some of his best pieces were written after he lost his hearing.

In 1827, leaving more than 300 pieces, the great musician died. But his name is still remembered to his day.
