There was once an ugly fairy living in a fairy country. She was the kindest and cleverest of all fairies. However, no one liked her, because they strongly believed that the most important thing about a fairy was her beauty. Every time she was ready to help a child or anyone else in trouble, before she could say a word they were already shouting at her, "Ugly! Get out of here!"

Although she was little, she had great magic power. More than once she thought about using it to make herself beautiful. But she remembered what her mother had always told her, "My dear, you are what you are."

One day, the witches (女巫) came and caught the fairies, putting them in prison. The ugly fairy, just before being caught, put a spell (咒语) on her pretty dress. Helped by her ugly face, she succeeded in making herself look like a witch. That way she was able to follow the witches back to their country.

The fairy used her magic power to prepare a big party for everyone there. While they were enjoying themselves, she left quietly and let free other fairies. When all of them got out of the prison, they worked together on one big spell and succeeded in putting the witches inside the mountain for the next hundred years.

From that day on everyone remembered the brave and clever fairy. And for the next hundred years, and more, when someone ugly was born in that country, everyone was filled with joy.

43. Everyone disliked the fairy because she was not _____.
A. smart B. beautiful C. brave D. friendly
44. Who stopped the fairy from using the great power to make herself pretty?
A. The other fairies. B. The witches.
C. The fairy herself D. Her mother.
45. Why didn't the witches put the ugly fairy in prison?
A. Because she wore a beautiful dress,
B. Because she was as strong as a witch.
C. Because they thought she was a witch like them.
D. Because they thought her magic power was useful.
46. What can we learn from the passage?
A. The ugly fairy was glad to help others.
B. The ugly fairy never listened to her mother.
C. All fairies worked together to kill the witches.
D. Everyone in the fairy country still disliked the ugly fairies.
