Jack and Lydia are on holiday in France with their friends, Mike and Anna.

Mike loves to visit historic buildings. Jack agrees to sightsee some historic buildings with him.

Lydia and Anna decide to shop in the city. "See you later, boys!" the girls shout.

In the village Jack and Mike see a beautiful old church. But when they enter the church, a service is already in progress.

"Shh! Just sit down quietly, so that we don't stand out. And act like the others !" Mike speaks in a low voice.

Since they don't know French, during the service, they stand, kneel (跪下) and sit to follow what the rest of the people do.

"I hope we blend (混合) in and don't look like tourists !" Mike tells Jack.

At one point, the priest (神父) makes an announcement and the man who sits next to Jack and Mike stands up.

"We should stand up, too! "Jack whispers to Mike.

So Jack and Mike stand up. Suddenly, all the people burst into laughter! Jack and Mike feel nervous and don't understand why they laugh.

After the service, Jack and Mike came to the priest, who speaks English.

"What was so funny?" Jack asks.

With a smile on his face, the priest says, "Well, boys, there is a newborn baby, and it's a tradition to ask the father to stand up."

What do you think of a “talking kitchen”? A French Digital Kitchen has been developed at Newcastle University in the UK. It teaches students how to cook French food and speak French at the same time. For the first time, students can learn the language by the following cooking steps.

All grammar and _____ have been carefully chosen to make sure that the users can understand French well. After learning for some time, the users can test themselves by doing a short test on the computer.

The kitchen project was started by Professor Paul. He became interested in the idea after he visited another kind of talking kitchen. He said, “ The purpose of the French Digital Kitchen is to make learning a language more interesting and more educational.”

How does the kitchen work? There is a computer in the kitchen. With this computer , the users can first choose a French recipe (菜谱) that they want to follow. Using information in the computer, the kitchen starts to guide the users how to make a French dish. If you follow the instructions on the computer, it will move on to the next. If you go wrong, the program will go back and repeats the recipe or information. At any time, the users can ask the kitchen to repeat the recipe or any information.

The new kitchen can be used in schools, universities and even people's homes. The researchers can also develop the European Digital Kitchen, for the next three years.

Once upon a time, there lived a teacher in a small town. He often taught his students in special ways. Once he sent four of his students to go to a small farm to see apple trees in different seasons. The first student went in winter, the second in spring, the third in summer, and the last in autumn.

After the four students came back, the teacher called them together. They pictured their feelings to the teacher. The first student said that there were no leaves on the trees. It made him very disappointed. The second student said his eyes were full of light green. It made him feel hopeful. The third one disagreed. "What are you talking about? How pretty the trees were! The sweet smell of the beautiful flowers spread here and there." The last one shook his head. He only saw a lot of apples on the beautiful trees.

The teacher smiled and told his students none of them were wrong. They each just saw one season. He continued, "The trees are not the same in different seasons. You can't judge a tree by only one season. Don't let the regret of one season destroy the beauty of the rest.

Everything has different sides in our life. Don't hurry to make a conclusion(结论) before seeing the whole of it.

请根据文章判读句子正(T)误(F)。
