IV. 阅读理解。(每小题 2 分, 共 30 分)

阅读下列材料, 从 A、B、C、D 四个选项中选出最佳的答案, 并把答题卡上对应题目的答案标号涂黑。

Did you have a dream to make your home a happier place? Maybe there are some points can help you.

Sometimes you don't think your parents are fair to you. When you want to dress in a modern way, your mum doesn't like you wearing a mini-skirt. When you are making phone calls to friends, they ask if you're speaking to a boy or a girl. Sometimes it seems that you're not as close to your parents as before. How can you and your parents become close again?

Closing the Gap, the book written by an American writer, gives some advice on how to have a better relationship with your parents. The book is useful for you to understand your parents. When you think "My parents don't want me to have any fun," that usually means your parents want you to be safe. Both parents and children have needs. They need to feel they are important and loved. You should tell your parents your needs, and find out what their needs are. Then, you can think of a way to make all of you happy. He gives you some ideas:

- (1) Make time to talk. You could talk about your school life and your plans for the future.
- (2) Keep a diary. This is to help you understand more about yourself and your feelings.
- (3) Show your parents you are growing up. Wash your clothes and help clean the house.

Your parents will feel that you are no longer a little child. If you follow these steps, soon you will be able to break down the walls between your parents and yourself.

(B)

Most people want to be happy, but few know how to find happiness. Money and success alone do not bring lasting happiness. Aristotle, a Greek thinker, said, "Happiness depends on yourselves." In other words, we make our own happiness. Here are a few suggestions to help us be happier.

The first secret of happiness is to enjoy the simple things in life. Too often, we spend so much time thinking about the future, for example, getting into college or getting a good job. As a result, we fail to enjoy the present. We should enjoy life's simple pleasures, such as reading a good book, listening to our favorite music, or spending time with close friends. People who have several close friends often live happier and healthier lives.

Another secret to living a happy life is to be active, and having hobbies can make us forget our problems. Many people enjoy dancing, swimming, running and so on. We can forget about our problems, and only think about the activities.

Finally, many people find happiness while helping others. Studies show that people feel good when they spend their time helping others. If we want to feel happier, do some good things for someone. We can help a friend with his or her studies, go shopping to buy food for an elderly person, or simply help around the house by washing the dishes.

()49. The best title (标题) of the passage is _____.

A. Money Makes You Happy

B. The Secrets of Happiness

()51. The writer thinks that _____.

A. everyone knows how to live a happier life

B. it's wrong to spend time on work

C. hobbies take up too much time

D. doing good things for someone can make us happier

()52. Which of the following is NOT mentioned in the passage?

A. Reading a good book.

B. Traveling to a foreign country.

C. Playing a sport.

D. Spending time with close friends.

(C)

It was the third Saturday in December. my son, Mark, saved all his pocket money for over three months to buy holiday presents. Mark said he had made his list and had twenty dollars in his pocket.

I drove him to a supermarket. Mark picked up a handbasket and went in while I waited and watched in the car. It took Mark over 45 minutes to choose his presents. Finally he came to the checkout counter (交款处) and reached into his pocket for his money. It was not there! There was a hole in his pocket, but no money. Mark stood there holding his basket, tears falling down his face.

Then a surprising thing happened. A woman came up to Mark and took him in her arms. "You would help me a lot if you let me pay for you," said the woman. "It would be the most wonderful gift you could give me. I only ask that one day you will pass it on. When you grow up, I would like you to find someone you can help. When you help others, I know you will feel as good about it as I do now."

Mark took the money, dried his tears and ran back to the checkout counter as fast as he could. That year we all enjoyed our gifts almost as much as Mark enjoyed giving them to us.

I would like to say "thank you" to that very kind woman, and tell her that four years later, Mark went house to house collecting blankets (毯子) and clothes for the homeless people in the fire. And I want to promise her that Mark will never forget to keep passing it on.

() 56. Why did the writer want to say "thank you" to the woman?

- A. Because she bought Mark a nice present
- B. Because she always paid money for others
- C. Because she collected clothes for the homeless
- D. Because she taught Mark to help people in need

Everyone has got two personalities (性格)----- the one is shown to the world and the other one is secret and real. You don't show your secret personality when you're awake because you can control yourself, but when you're asleep, your sleeping position shows the real you and your secret personality.

If you go to sleep on your back, you're a very open person. You may trust people and you don't like to make people unhappy, so you never express your real feelings.

If you sleep on your stomach, you like to keep secrets. You worry a lot and you're always easily becoming sad. You never want to change your ideas, You usually live for today not for tomorrow.

If you sleep on curled up (蜷缩), you are probably a very nervous person. You have a low opinion of yourself and often protect yourself from being hurt, so you are very defensive. You're shy and you don't usually like meeting people. You like to be on your own.

If you sleep on your side, you usually have a well-balanced (平衡的) personality. You know your strengths (长处) and weaknesses (缺点). You're usually careful. You have a confident personality. You sometimes feel worried, but you don't often get unhappy. You always say what you think, even if it makes people angry.
