My best friend David is a big fan of Team Rocket. He started to like the team when he was twelve years old. On his twelfth birthday, he watched a basketball match on TV. Team Rocket played against another team and finally won. Then he began to love basketball and the team. Now he watches a basketball match every Saturday morning, because he doesn't have to do homework on Saturdays. He is always in a red basketball T-shirt too. He thinks this kind of colour can bring him good luck. This weekend is special for him. He will go to the USA to watch a live match. This is his first time to go to a country in North America. After the match, he will meet some of the players. He is looking forward to that.
