One possible version:

Dear Ben,

I am sorry to hear that you are having trouble getting used to life in middle school. In your letter you said that you have two problems. First, you said you have few friends and feel lonely. Second, you are finding it hard to remember your English words. As for your first problem, I suggest that you join a club where you can meet more people and talk with them. It's easy to make friends. When in school, you should say hello to other people and smile often. If you are friendly enough, you can make more friends. About your second problem, I think you can read more English stories and news articles. You can watch English movies or listen to English songs to help you remember the words. I hope things will get better for you.

Good luck with everything!

Li Hua
