书面表达

One Possible Version:

Last week, a school did a survey among 200 in Grade Seven students about their favorite clubs. From the survey, we can know that 30% of the students want to join the guitar club and 60% of the students are thinking about joining the swimming club. Only 20 students want to join the story telling club.

As for me, I want to join the swimming club. For one thing, I always want to learn swimming, but there isn't a swimming school near my home. Joining a swimming club is like a dream come true. For another thing, swimming is great exercise. It's good for my health.
