Dear Sally,

Thank you for your e-mail and photos of New York. Here are some photos of my family trip in Wuhan. In the first photo, my sister Jane is wearing Chinese traditional clothes on the Yellow Crane Tower (黄鹤楼). In the second picture, my father and I are swimming in a river. It's so cool! In the next picture, my parents, Jane and I are eating a kind of great noodles. Its name is Hot Noodles with Sesame Paste (热干面). It tastes very nice!

In the last picture, my family are at my friend's home. We are having some mooncakes because it's the Mid-Autumn Festival. It's an important festival in China. On this day, all the families get together and have a happy dinner.

I think Wuhan is a nice city in China. The people there are friendly. One day I wish to go there again.

Yours,
