One possible version:

Dear Xiaoming,

I know you are a helpful boy. You often help your classmates with their work. I think you are right. You should continue to help others. Just try to be different. Be the one who stands up and says that people should help each other instead of competing all the time. Try to be helpful and kind to other people. It may seem impossible sometimes, but your behavior will start to make a difference to others. You can be the one who changes the way people treat each other. And even if some of those people still don't change, you can at least know that you made an effort to change things.

Yours,

Li Mei
