In England, schools begin (开始) in September after a long summer holiday. There are three terms (学期) in a school year. The first term is from September to the middle of December. The second term is from the early January to the end of March. And the last term is from the middle of April to the middle of July.

Most English children begin to go to school when they are five years old. They finish high school (高中) at the age of seventeen or eighteen years old.

High school students take only five or six subjects each term. They usually go to the same class every day, and they have homework for every class. After class, they do a lot of interesting things. After high school, many students go to college (大学). They like their school, so they have to work after class to get money for their studies.

(E)

请阅读下面非连续性文本,按要求完成所给任务,并将答案写在答题卡相应的位置上。

In China, most students go to school by bike or by bus. If the school is not far, they can walk to school every day. Few students are late for class. But things are different in other countries (国家).

In many Western (西方的) countries, students live far from their school and they have different ways to get to school. Many students go to school by car. Over 50% of New Zealand children go to school in their parents’ car every day. It’s surprising that in some schools nearly 90% of children go to school in this way every day. Driving to school makes children do little exercise. So we can see children are getting fatter and fatter. Also, driving to school makes the air (空气) very bad. Walking to school is good to make children healthy and also good for our life. Schools and parents can ask and help children to walk to school to make our life good.

Scooters (小型摩托车)
Scooters are popular with students in some Western countries. If you don’t want to take a bus to school, you can go by scooter. 这会让你
的旅行很有趣,很刺激。

Double-deck(双层的) buses

In some cities, there are double-deck buses. The bus has two floors and it can carry more people. So some students can take a double-deck bus to school.

In some cold countries, such as Finland and Iceland, it often snows. The students in town may take a school bus, but the students in villages far from the school have to go by sledge(雪橇) because there is snow everywhere. It takes a little longer.

Sometimes, the students may be late for school. If it snows heavily, the students can only study at home.

64. Please translate(翻译) the underlined(划线的) sentence into Chinese.

65. What bad things can driving to school make?(One example is OK.)

66. Please translate the underlined sentence into English.

67. What is the double-deck bus?

68. Why the students go to school by sledge in villages in Finland and Iceland?

69. How do you go to school every day? What do you think of it?
