And if you look closely at the vases, you can also see many paintings on them. These paintings look both Chinese and German.

There were also many other pieces of porcelain with Eastern culture. One was a very beautiful chessboard. Playing chess was a popular game in old times in both China and other eastern countries. And it has many stories about China.

As you grow up, your parents are also getting older. “I don't want you to get old,” you might say to your mom and dad. But remember, getting old is a natural thing. Growing up is getting old. Everyone on Earth will become old one day.

On one hand, when you're with your grandparents, you might see wrinkles (皱纹) on their faces. Their hair might be gray. They may need to wear glasses to read. They may often forget some things. In your neighborhood, you might see some older people around. They need people to help them.

But on the other hand, when people get old, they can stop working. Think about your grandparents. They have a lot of time to do their favorite things, such as traveling, reading, singing or even going to school for the elderly(老年人). That sounds great!

Old people have many memories of their lives, both good and bad. But the most important thing is that old people are full of wisdom. They know about lots of things and like to give advice. Listening to them carefully will be very helpful to you.

49. What does the writer think of getting old?

Today, people are so interested in travelling. The main reason is that perhaps people just go on a trip for pleasure. After working hard for a whole week, people will be relaxed to go to the nearby mountains or beaches. Of course if it is possible, travelling around the world every year will be a really excellent holiday.
