Dear God,

I am a boy. I live in a poor village. My parents used to be farmers, but now they are working in a big city. They want to build a new house. Our old house is leaking. It becomes wet after a heavy rain. I think our new house must look clean and smart. I don't mind if it is big or small. It is not in the centre of the city or near the sea. It lies in a peaceful valley. There are flowers and grass around the house. My father can ride his horse to look after his sheep; my mother can milk her cows. My brother's cat is lying in the sun while I am reading under the tree. How beautiful!

Our new house has the three bedrooms. There is a bedroom for my mother and father, one for me and one for my brother. There is a living room, a kitchen and a bathroom. There is a small balcony in the front of the house, and an armchair stands there quietly. There are some plants on the balcony, too. My family will be very happy in it. God, tell me, can my dream come true? What should I do for that?

Sincerely yours,

Amos
