They're in Mr. Green's class. I'm learning how to use computers, so I am in Mrs. Brown's class. I have to design(设计) my own program this week. All of the campers have to. I want to design a game. Then I can teach you.

We must take part in two other activities every day. I am going to choose swimming and tennis. In my free time, I am going to play games on the computers. Most of the campers do so. I like camping, but I don't like the food here. It's very bad. We have our breakfast, lunch and supper in a very big room. When we are eating, everyone is talking and there's a lot of noise.
