During cool autumn days, not many flowers bloom. But chrysanthemums (菊花) still bloom in bright colors. Chinese people like these beautiful and strong flowers. Chrysanthemums have many meanings in China.

Chinese people think that the chrysanthemum stands for the qualities of a noble (高尚的) person. For example, it can bloom in cold weather, just like a noble person goes through difficulties.

Chinese poets in ancient times talked about the chrysanthemum in their poems. They thought highly of its beauty. They also used the flower to represent their own spirit. Tao Yuanming (365-427) was a great poet. He wrote a poem about his free life. He described how he “picked chrysanthemums” every day to keep a peaceful mind.

Chrysanthemums are also part of Chinese food. People drink wine made from chrysanthemums. They also drink chrysanthemum tea. They believe the tea is good for one's health.

You know now that 5G can give you a faster online experience. In fact, 5G can do a lot more than just this. Here are some of the major things 5G can do.

Do you have live broadcast classes at home? With 5G, you can have classes outside your home. The class can go as smoothly as the ones you have at home. Students from poor areas can have the chance to study just like you do.

5G makes self-driving cars safer. These cars can send signals to each other. They can also "talk" to traffic lights and road sensors (传感器). 5G will make cars react even faster than human drivers.

Xiao Ming is at school. Suddenly, he feels uncomfortable and faints (晕倒). An ambulance comes. Doctors at the ambulance send Xiao Ming's information to the hospital through 5G. Doctors at the hospital get the information. They have a video call to diagnose Xiao Ming. With 5G, future medical care can be like this. Also, when people are ill, they may not need to go to the hospital. They can just see a doctor at home.

5G makes VR better. We can use VR in many areas, such as when playing a video game or having a sports match.

根据材料内容选择最佳答案。

51. How many situations can 5G make our life better according to this passage?

- A. 3                      B. 4                      C. 5                      D. 6

52. What will the future medical care be like with 5G?

- A. Patients will be sent to the hospital at once.
B. Doctors will get the patient's information when they call his name.
C. Doctors can diagnose more diseases than now.
D. With the information, doctors can diagnose patients through a video call.

53. Which of the following sentence is wrong?

- A. We can have live broadcast classes in any situation.
- B. The reason why 5G makes diving safer is that signals can be sent by cars.
- C. Through 5G, doctors can get the patients' information quickly.
- D. People can use VR in different areas.

54. What does the underlined word in paragraph 4 mean?

- A. 讨论          B. 研究          C. 诊断          D. 治疗

55. What's the main idea of this passage?

- A. How is 5G made?
- B. How does 5G work?
