Many people like to travel by plane, but I don't. The airport is usually far from the city. You have to get there early and wait for hours before the plane take off and it is often late. You can't open the window, and you can't choose the food. Planes are fast but it still takes hours to get out of the airport and into the city.

I like traveling by train. I think trains are safe. Railway stations are usually in downtown. When you are late for a train, you can catch another. You can walk around in the train and open the windows. You can see many interesting things on your way. I know it takes a little more time. I also like cars. You can start your journey when you want to, and you don't need to get to a railway station or a bus stop. Also you can carry many things with you in a car. But sometimes there are too many cars on the roads.

任务一 将划线短语 take off 译为汉语。 _____

任务二 回答问题

1. Why doesn't the writer like traveling by plane?

2. What does the writer think of trains?
