Students learn their lessons in class. They sit in the classroom listening to the teacher. This is a way of learning. Is this the only way for students to learn? Of course not. There is another way to learn.

Students can teach themselves (自学). Every student can teach himself or herself, and every student is teaching himself or herself when he or she is learning something. For example, if you cannot remember anything when you are doing your homework, what will you do? You can look at your book to find the answer. This is a way to teach yourself. And it is not a difficult way. We can do this at any place and at any time.

How can you teach yourself? Here are the steps (步骤) for you. The first thing you must do is reading. Read something you are interested in, not you have to read. The second is that you must ask yourself questions. The questions are something you don't know, or you want to know more about. You can write down these questions. A clever student is usually good at asking questions. The third is to answer the questions yourself by thinking hard, by reading the text or other books, and sometimes by asking other people.

These are the steps of teaching yourself. And you must do these all by yourself. If you keep doing these for a long time, you are sure to succeed in your study.

- ( )57. What is another way to learn according to the passage?
A. To learn from a teacher. B. To learn on one's own.

C. To learn from parents. D. To learn from friends.
